BRIEF HISTORY
OF THE
BOSTON LATIN SCHOOL

The oldest public school in America, with a continuous existence, is the Boston Latin School. The School was founded April 23, 1635,* by the Town of Boston, antedating Harvard College by more than a year, and in April, 1935, celebrated its tercentenary with appropriate exercises.

The curriculum of the School is centered on the Humanities, for this School believes with the ancient Greeks that the only good things are the goods of the soul.

The establishment was due in great measure to the influence of the Reverend John Cotton, who sought to establish in the new world a school like the Free Grammar School of Boston, England, in which Latin and Greek were taught.

The first school was in the home of the Master, Philemon Pormort.

In August, 1636, Daniel Maude was chosen to assist him. When, in 1638, Pormort was obliged to leave Boston because of his adherence to the liberal doctrines of Anne Hutchinson, Maude became Master. He conducted the school in his own home till about 1643.

From the first years the town assigned the rents of Deer, Long and Spectacle Islands to the support of the school; in addition it was voted,

* "On the 13th of the second month, 1635, . . . Att a Generall meeting upon publique notice . . . it was . . . generally agreed upon that our brother Philemon Pormort shall be intreated to become scholemaster for the teaching and nourtering of children with us." — Town Records.

 A tablet has been erected by the City of Boston marking the site of Maude's home in Pemberton Square.

in August, 1645, "to allow forever fifty pounds to the Master, and an house, and thirty pounds to an usher."

Of Maude's successor, John Woodbridge, little is known, except that he is supposed to have been the first minister at Andover and that he remained in office for approximately one year.

In 1650, Robert Woodmansey became the schoolmaster with a salary of "fifty pounds a year." He was followed by the famous colonial poet and physician, Benjamin Tompson, in 1667.

On December 29, 1670, the celebrated Ezekiel Cheever was invited to become Head Master, and Tompson was asked to remain as his Assistant. Cheever accepted, but Tompson left to take Cheever's former position in Charlestown. Cheever was fifty-six years old when he accepted the position. He died while in office, on August 21, 1708. Cotton Mather, the renowned divine, preached the funeral oration, in which he said, "We generally concur in acknowledging that New England has never known a better teacher." Cheever's reputation was great throughout the colonies, for he had written the famous "Accidence," which was the accepted Latin Grammar.

Nathaniel Williams, the first pupil to become Head Master, succeeded Cheever in 1708. In 1709, the master's salary was raised to one hundred pounds a year and the usher was still supplied at the town's expense.

In 1734, Williams resigned and John Lovell, his Assistant, was appointed to the vacancy, to become "the pride of Boston's parents and the terror of its youth."

In 1760, James Lovell, the Head Master's son, was appointed usher. He was an ardent patriot, whereas his father was a strong loyalist. They taught from desks at opposite ends of the schoolroom; and, voicing opposite political convictions, they typified many a Boston family in those trying times.

In the winter of 1774-75 the boys of the Latin School were accustomed to bring their sleds and, as soon as school was done, to coast down Beacon Street, across Tremont and down School Street. General Haldimand,* commanding the British troops under General Gage, lived on School Street, and his servant cut up the coast and put ashes on it. "The lads made a muster" — probably of the first class — "and chose a committee to wait upon the General, who admitted them, and heard their complaint, which was couched in very genteel terms, complaining that their fathers before 'em had improved it as a coast from time immemorial," etc. He ordered his servant to repair the damage, saying that he had trouble enough with Boston men, and wouldn't have any with Boston boys. He "acquainted the Governor with the affair, who observed that it was impossible to beat the notion of Liberty out of the people, as it was rooted in 'em FROM THEIR CHILDHOOD."

On the morning of April 19, 1775, occurred one of the most dramatic episodes in the history of the School, when John Lovell angrily announced, "War's begun and school's done; deponite libros." When the British evacuated Boston, in March, 1776, both the Lovells sailed with Lord Howe to Halifax, N. S.; the father as Howe's guest, the son as his prisoner. Shortly afterwards James was exchanged and later became a delegate to the Continental Congress. John Lovell died at Halifax, in 1778.

For admission to the School, during Lovell's regime, it was necessary to read a few verses from the Bible. Each of the six or seven classes of the School sat at different benches. The subjects studied were Latin and Greek and "the elementary subjects." The morning session of the School started at seven o'clock in summer and eight in winter, and ended at eleven. School resumed at one o'clock in the afternoon and ran until five. After either the eleven o'clock hour or the five o'clock hour, or after both, the pupils attended a writing school near by.

On Thursdays the School was dismissed at ten o'clock, in order that the pupils might have the opportunity of attending the "Thursday Lecture" — another heritage from Boston, England.

School was resumed under Samuel Hunt, who ruled — with some difficulty — till 1805. He was succeeded by William Bigelow, who, after nine years of still rougher going, also resigned.

Benjamin Apthorp Gould, appointed Head Master in 1814 while still a senior at Harvard, restored order and scholarship to the School. Many features of the Latin School of to-day — amongst them the "misdemeanor mark" — had their beginnings under Gould. He began the practice of declamation, which continues to this day. He made the beginnings of a library. He issued regular reports of scholarship to the parents and placed squarely on the latter the responsibility for the pupils' conduct.

Gould resigned in 1828 to enter business, and was succeeded by his assistant, Frederic Percival Leverett, the author of the famous Leverett's Latin Lexicon. Leverett resigned in 1831 to become head of a private school.

Leverett's successor, Charles Knapp Dillaway, was in office until 1836, when ill health obliged him to resign.

Epes Sargent Dixwell, who succeeded Dillaway, had been a Master at the English High School. The School owes much to Dixwell, for during his term of fifteen years he founded The Boston Latin School Association and made the school library a reality. While Dixwell was Head Master, Edward Everett Hale became an usher (1839) and continued in the office for three years. Dixwell resigned in 1851. Francis Gardner, one of the most renowned men of Boston in the middle nineteenth century, was his successor. He edited the famous series of Latin School Text-books. A rugged, forthright character, he made both friends and enemies. During the last six years of his headmastership, an absurdly ambitious curriculum was imposed on the School, aiming at "general culture." He opposed this vigorously but unsuccessfully. An estimate of Gardner can be obtained from these words of Wendell Phillips, his classmate: "He was, from mere boyhood and life long, eminently a just man, only claiming fair play, and more than willing to allow it to others. I never knew the time, even in his boyhood, when he did not detest or despise a sham." He died in 1876, the first Head Master to die in office since Ezekiel Cheever. It was during his headmastership that Phillips Brooks served for a year as usher in the School.

Augustine Milton Gay was chosen his successor; but he lived only a few months after his appointment.

Dr. Moses Merrill was appointed Gay's successor and continued in the office until 1901. He died shortly after leaving office. His contribution to the School was the reorganization of the curriculum on a sane, modern basis. There have been few changes since that time. During his lifetime he was looked up to as a man of high character and strong moral influence.

Arthur Irving Fiske became Head Master in 1902. One of the ablest scholars in these parts, especially in Greek, he was loved and respected by his pupils. He ruled without friction. He was at all times courteous, the perfect type of the scholar and gentleman. He resigned in 1910 and died the same year.

Henry Pennypacker was selected as his successor. Mr. Pennypacker brought to the office of Head Master, not only the mind of the scholar, but the rugged personality of the athlete. By those who came in contact with Henry Pennypacker, he was recognized as a man's man. He resigned in 1920 to become Chairman of the Committee on Admissions at Harvard. His work there made him a figure of national importance, until his death early in 1934.

Patrick Thomas Campbell, '89, the first graduate of the Latin School to sit in the Head Master's chair since the death of Dr. Gardner, succeeded Mr. Pennypacker in 1920. His kind and firm rule won the respect and love of all the boys who came in contact with him. The enrollment doubled during his consulship. In spite of this rapid growth, the School for four years in succession, 1925 to 1928, obtained the highest average in examinations for admission to College, thereby securing permanent possession of the trophy offered by the Harvard chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society. In 1929, Mr. Campbell was chosen Assistant Superintendent of Schools and, in 1931, was elected Superintendent of the Boston Public Schools, a position which he held until his death on February 12, 1937.

Joseph Lawrence Powers, '96, a Master in the School for twenty-three years was appointed Mr. Campbell's successor in 1929. Soft-spoken, unhurried, courteous but firm, Dr. Powers exerted an incalculable influence for nearly half a century. Through depression and war he sustained the School's historic pace. He was an energetic champion of the economic welfare of the Masters, and from his retirement in 1948 until his death December 1, 1955, he was devotedly interested in the prosperity of the school and the Alumni.

George Leonard McKim, '18 succeeded Dr. Powers in 1948. During Mr. McKim's tenure of office, the School received a great amount of fine, country-wide publicity. National magazines reported the methods and standards of the School in a very favorable light. That the commendations were justified, is best shown by the performance of the boys of the School in the National Honor Society Scholarship Examinations.

Mr. McKim, a veteran of two World Wars retired in 1954 after more than thirty years of service in the Boston Public Schools. He was succeeded by John Joseph Doyle, '12.

Mr. Doyle, Class of 1912, assumed the Headmastership of his alma mater in September 1954 and retired June 1964. Mr. Doyle served in the Boston Public School system for over forty years.

Dr. Wilfred L. O'Leary, '25, veteran of World War II, Colonel-Air Force Reserve, Commander Flt. A. Selective Service Tng. Unit Boston, Mass.,

President of Massachusetts Schoolmasters' Club and for the past eleven years Secretary-Treasurer of the New England History Teachers' Association, succeeded Mr. Doyle on September 1, 1964. Since 1957 Dr. O'Leary has been a member of the Educational Policy Committee of the Massachusetts Association of Secondary School Principals.

A realignment of present courses is currently in the making and will be effected by the Fall of 1965. At present some boys are taking Advanced Placement Examinations in German, Mathematics, and English. It is planned for 1965-66 that there will be Advanced Placement classes in the Class I subjects.

Of the fifty-six signers of the Declaration of Independence these had been pupils of this School:—

John Hancock, Massachusetts.
Samuel Adams, Massachusetts.
Benjamin Franklin, Pennsylvania.
Robert Treat Paine, Massachusetts.
William Hooper, North Carolina.

The Latin School boys who served in the Civil War are commemorated by Greenough's* statue in the lower corridor, representing Alma Mater crowning her heroes; those who died in the war are named on a shield which she is holding; those who returned are named on two marble tablets near by. A bronze tablet and portraits in the Hall and corridors still further honor some of these men.

Latin School's service in World War I is memorialized by a bronze tablet on either side of the main corridor. The tablet on the right has inscribed upon it the name of those Latin School boys who died in service. The tablet on the left is in honor of the four hundred and eighty alumni and undergraduates who enlisted in the army or the navy.

* Class of 1829.

Portraits of Lieutenants Warren Eastman Robinson, Junior Master in the Latin School, and of many Latin School boys, who served and died in World War I, are in the lower corridor.

During the far-flung campaigns of the second World War ninety-eight Latin School boys in the various branches of the United States armed service laid down their lives.

The portraits of the following Head Masters, the property of the Boston Latin School Association, are in the Assembly Hall of the School:—

John Lovell: a copy of one by Smibert (the original of which is now in Memorial Hall, Harvard University).

Benjamin A Gould: artist unknown.
Charles K. Dillaway: by J. H. Young.
Epes S. Dixwell: by Henry O. Walker.
Francis Gardner: by Wm. Morris Hunt.
Augustine M. Gay: enlarged photograph.
Moses Merrill: by Frank H. Tompkins.
Arthur I. Fiske: by Wilton Lockwood.
Henry Pennypacker: by W. W. Churchill.
Patrick T. Campbell: by H. E. Smith.
Joseph L. Powers: by C. B. Moulton.

A portrait of Charles J. Capen, a graduate of the School in 1840, and a teacher here from 1852 to 1910, is in the Library. The School has a carefully selected LIBRARY of about five thousand five hundred volumes.

There is, also, an interesting collection of relics and memorials of the old school. Room 301 has casts from the antique, the gifts of various classes.

Room 201 has casts, pictures, etc., illustrating American History. It was fitted up by a graduate of the Latin School as a memorial to John W. Randall, a descendant of Samuel Adams.

Tablets in the lower corridor and the Assembly Hall commemorate the lives of Ezekiel Cheever and of Moses Merrill.

Among the many efficient Head Masters of the Latin School these are worthy of note as having had a remarkably long connection with the School:—

Ezekiel Cheever 1671-1708
John Lovell 1730-1776
Francis Gardner 1831-1876
Moses Merrill 1858-1901
Arthur Irving Fiske 1873-1910
Henry Pennypacker 1891-1920
Patrick Thomas Campbell ...1897-1929
Joseph Lawrence Powers 1906-1948

THE SCHOOL BUILDING

As mentioned above, the first schools were held in the homes of the Masters. About 1645 the first schoolhouse, as such, was erected on the north side of School Street,* on the rear of the site now occupied by King's Chapel. Very little is known about the building, but from colonial records it is believed to have been of two stories. The schoolmaster had his home in the same building until 1702, when a separate house was built for Head Master Cheever.

In 1704, the schoolhouse was rebuilt. It stood at about the present location of the statue of Benjamin Franklin. This building was used until 1748 when, due to an addition to King's Chapel, it had to be removed. A new schoolhouse was built on the south side of School Street, about where the end of the Parker House now stands. This building was repaired in 1785, and during the repairs Head Master Hunt taught the School in Faneuil Hall.

In 1812, a new building of three stories was constructed on the site of its predecessor. Ralph

* Originally "the street going up to elder James Penn's"; later the street was "South-Latin-Grammar-School Street," shortened into "School Street."

 A tablet marking the site is located on the fence in front of City Hall.

Waldo Emerson, who was in the School at that time, tells us that during the rebuilding period school was held in a barn near Haymarket Square, and afterwards in Scollay's building on Pemberton Hill.

Due to the rapid expansion of the city it was necessary to tear down the schoolhouse in 1844 to make room for the Horticultural House. At this time the school left the street to which it had given the name of "School Street," its home for two hundred years. The new schoolhouse was erected on Bedford Street, now the extension of Harrison Avenue. The school occupied one-half of this building, and the English High School the other half. In 1880, the growing numbers necessitated a new building, and accordingly, in 1881, the School was removed to Warren Avenue. English High School was still a neighbor, occupying the Montgomery Street side of the double building. This combined building was spoken of as "the largest structure in America devoted to educational purposes, and the largest in the world used as a free school."

After World War I the school building was found to be too small to accommodate the growth of both schools. In 1920, a new building was started on Avenue Louis Pasteur, in the Fenway, and the Latin School entered it in the fall of 1922, leaving English High School in possession of the old building.

The new building, of modern fireproof construction, proved inadequate for the School the very first year, and six extra classrooms were added at once. Even this addition proved insufficient, and for seven years the lower classes had to be housed in several annexes. In 1932-1933 the building was extended to about double its original size, and in the fall of 1933 the entire School was organized under one roof.

AIM OF THE SCHOOL

The Latin School is open primarily to boys who intend to go to College and wish to be prepared in the Liberal Arts tradition.

ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOL

All admission to Boston Latin School is by examination. Registration and examination will take place early in the spring. All boys must take examinations in English and Arithmetic. Only residents of Boston are eligible for the examination. Admission is restricted by the space available and we must pick the top boys for admission to each class.

Boys are earnestly recommended to enter Class VI, and to take the full six year's course, and such boys are likely to be better prepared for College than if they remained at the Elementary School to graduate.

Graduates of the Elementary Schools of Boston and boys who have completed the eighth grade of a Junior High School may enter Class IVB. Such boys constitute the so-called "B" sections. All members of Class IVB, if of good abilities and of firm resolution, may graduate in four years.

Class VI boys constitute the "A" sections. All meld in Class I.

In the Third and Fourth Years of the Four Year Course the studies and the instruction are identical with the studies and the instruction in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Six Year Course, with the following exception: Third Year Latin in the Four Year Course restricts its reading to six or more orations of Cicero, and Fourth Year Latin comprises the reading of Virgil's Æneid, Books 1-IV. ...

DECLAMATION.

Almost from the earliest days Declamation has been a feature of the Latin School. Each boy may compete with other boys five times a year, before three teachers, for the privilege of speaking in the Public Declamations, which occur five times a year and are open to parents and friends. From the best of those appearing three times in Public Declamation twelve or more are selected for the Annual Prize Declamation in June, on the day of the awarding of school prizes. A combination of the school marks with the marks of judges selected from distinguished graduates of the school determines the award of prizes.

PRIZES AND SCHOLARSHIPS

For the current year prizes, medals and scholarships are offered as follows:

I.

DIXWELL PRIZE.

FOR EXCELLENCE IN CLASSICS.

To the pupil in each division of each class whose record for the year is highest in Latin, Greek, and Ancient History and Geography.

These classical prizes are offered from a fund given by Epes Sargent Dixwell, a former Head Master.

II.

FRANCIS GARDNER PRIZES.*

1. FOR EXCELLENCE IN MODERN STUDIES.

To the pupil in each division who has the highest record in Mathematics, Natural Science, French, German, Modern History and Geography, English Language, Literature and Composition, Reading and Spelling.

Note.—No pupil may receive both the Classical Prize and the Modern Studies Prize the same year, and no pupil who is repeating the work of the year is eligible. Both prizes are awarded on the basis of averages through the report card issued in May.

2. FOR EXCELLENCE IN DECLAMATION.

Three prizes — first, second, and third — to the best three speakers, regardless of class; also three special prizes: one to the best speaker from the first and second classes, another to the best speaker from the third and fourth classes, and still another to the best speaker from the fifth and sixth classes. Those speakers who win regular prizes will not be candidates for special prizes.

CORNELIUS MARTIN SULLIVAN AWARD.

From a fund established by the Class of 1952 in memory of its classmate, Cornelius Martin Sullivan, a special award is made to the winner of the First Prize in Declamation.

Note.—Declamation prizes are awarded upon the basis of marks given at Public Declamations during the year, and of marks given by the judges at the Annual Prize Declamation. The marks of the year count as sixty per cent.

*From the Bryant-Gardner Fund, the bequest of John D. Bryant, Class of 1849.

3. For Excellence in Reading.

Three prizes — first, second and third — to the best three readers, regardless of class; also two special prizes: one to the best reader from the third and fourth classes, and another to the best reader from the fifth and sixth classes. Those readers who win regular prizes will not be candidates for special prizes.

Reading prizes are given upon the basis of marks of the judges at the Annual Prize Reading.

4. For Excellence in Debating.

Two prizes are offered to the best two debaters, regardless of class; also a special prize to the best debater from the third and fourth classes. Those debaters who win regular prizes will not be candidates for the special prize.

5. For Excellence in Dramatics.

Prizes are offered, regardless of class, for excellence in dramatics.

III.

Lawrence Prizes.

1. For General Excellence in Conduct and Studies.

To pupils who have received the maximum number of approbation cards with distinction in the year.

Note.—These cards are given each month to all who have not been absent or tardy except for religious observance, who have not failed in any subject, and who have received no marks for misdemeanors.

2. For Exemplary Conduct and Fidelity.

To one pupil in each division, selected by the instructors as conspicuous for faithful endeavor, regardless of mere rank in class.

Note.—No pupil may receive a prize in both III., 1, and III., 2, the same year. No pupil may receive a Fidelity Prize more than once during his school career.

3. For Original Written Exercises.

(a) For a poem on the following subject:
Ode to the New Boston

(b) For an essay on one of the following subjects:
(1) Reading Maketh a Full Man.
(2) The Classics Are Eternal.
(3) Public Declamation at Boston Latin School Has Great Value.

Note.—These prizes are derived from gifts made by several Boston gentlemen in 1819, and by the late Abbott Lawrence in 1845.

No exercise shall be rewarded unless of sufficient merit to deserve a prize. No pupil may be a candidate for more than one prize in III., 3. In II., 2, 3, 4, 5 and III., 2, no pupil may be a candidate for a prize for which he has before competed successfully.

4. For Translations.

(a) Latin.

A translation into English verse of a selection to be announced in January.

(b) French.

A translation from French poetry.

IV

Gardner Prize for Research.

From a fund given by pupils in New York and Boston of the late Francis Gardner, a former Head Master of the School, two prizes will be given. These prizes are offered only to members of the Graduating Class. One prize is offered for an essay showing the greatest ability and research in Science. A pupil may be a candidate for both prizes; but in any case the dissertations are subject to the conditions in the note under III., 3.

Note.—A list of authorities consulted, with references to volume, chapter, and page, must accompany each essay.

1. Literature.

To develop a finer sensitivity to good music through recordings and musical talks; to keep members informed on current musical events.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY. (Mr. Bergen)
Monthly meeting on the first Tuesday in Room 326
To create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character. Membership in the Society shall be based upon scholarship, service and leadership — and is open to members of the Senior Class.

PHILOSOPHY CLUB. (Mr. Donovan)
Tuesdays in 234.
To provide boys interested in philosophical ideas the opportunity to express themselves in certain subject areas of philosophy and discuss among themselves the application of these ideas to modern society and the individual.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB. (Mr. Driscoll)

Alternate Mondays in 329.

To foster interest in photography among the students and to increase their proficiency in the use of photographic equipment.

PROFESSIONAL CLUB. (Mr. Conley)

Alternate Wednesdays in Room 212.

To develop a sense of professionalism in those students who expect to enter the professions. The programs of the club will be oriented toward a fuller understanding of the duties, responsibilities and privileges of the various professions.

RADIO CLUB. (Mr. Higgins).

First Tuesday of the month in Room 317.

To learn by demonstration, discussion, and individual projects the principles of modern radio.

RADIO SHACK. (Mr. Higgins).

Every day in Room 312.

To teach, by actual experience, the operating procedures of two-way radio.

LATIN SCHOOL REGISTER. (Mr. Roche and Mr. Gordon)

Staff meetings held before and after publication of each issue in Room 204.

To give opportunity to boys with literary or artistic ability to have their compositions printed. Any student of the school is eligible to contribute.

LATIN SCHOOL STAGE CREW. (Lt. Col. Kelley)

Monthly meetings in the Assembly Hall.

The organization is a school-service group. Its members are responsible for the staging of all assemblies, plays, shows, and graduations — and for the care and management of all auditorium facilities.

RUSSIAN CLUB. (Mr. Donovan)

Alternate Mondays in Room 234.

To promote cultural and historical interest in the U.S.S.R., through lectures by members and invited guests.

SCIENCE CLUB. (Mr. Jacob)

Alternate Thursdays in Room 212.

To obtain through discussion, demonstration, and individual experiments knowledge of present day development and application of scientific principles.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB. (Mr. Leary)

Alternate Wednesdays in Room 206.

Classes I through IV.

To promote an understanding of the role of man in the modern world. Special emphasis is given to politics, economics, and current events. Participation in the programs of the World Affairs Council is stressed to develop an understanding of other nations and international affairs.

STAMP CLUB. (Mr. Pheeney)

Alternate Thursdays in Room 133.

To assist pupils whose hobby is stamp collecting to know more about new stamp issues and the arrangement of stamps for exhibition. There is opportunity for exchange among the members.

VICTORY CLUB. (Mr. Desmond)

Every Monday in Room 328.

To build school spirit through the backing of school athletic teams by means of publicity, ticket-sales, rallies, and organized vocal support at games.
